Sean Handler helps clients recover assets and damages in litigation worldwide. He handles a wide variety of cases, including securities fraud (both shareholder class actions and direct—or opt-out—actions), breach of fiduciary duty, product liability, consumer fraud, whistleblower, antitrust, and oil and gas litigation.

Sean jointly oversees the lead plaintiff appointment process for institutional clients with his partner, Naumon Amjed. He has obtained numerous noteworthy appointments for clients in reported decisions and has argued before federal courts throughout the country, including the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.
